Kathy Gregory is a principal with the six fifty company. Her experience includes over 20 years of customizing educational tools for transportation professionals. She provides a broad range of services, including writing and editing, to a diverse group of clients in the transportation industry. Her clients include nonprofit groups, engineering services providers, public agencies, manufacturing companies, and universities. Kathy holds a Master of Science in Industrial & Organizational Psychology; she integrates the principles of adult learning with her passion for writing to create a fast-paced and interactive learning environment.